

As many of you already know, from 1st February 2020 Menghini & Bonfanti srl - La Genovese - became part of Kunzle & Tasin srl, a historic Italian company and a point of reference since 1946 in the market of woodworking and parquet treatment.

This synergy will allow us to combine our respective backgrounds and offer you, in addition to the quality and reliability you know, new values and solutions in the field of machinery and products for floors made of natural stone or concrete: a wider range, an even more effective assistance, innovative services!

From January 2021 the company moved to the new headquarters in Paderno Dugnano (Milan), strategically located near the ring road exit, where you have the opportunity to purchase our products and follow training courses on the use of sanders and on specific issues.
