

Stone Trading International is a leading Italian company in the Natural Stone industry offering the finest marble, quartzite, granite and onyx from all over the world.

It was founded in 1935 and boasts a long, passionate history comprising both solid experience and genuine love for natural stone, especially through strong, well-established ties with the regional territory. Stone Trading International is one of Carrara's largest companies and our inventory features more than 10,000 slabs from all over the world.

With two locations in Carrara and Avenza – the first entirely devoted to white marble and the second to exotic stones and exclusive materials – the Stone Trading International company extracts some of its most precious marble directly from its own quarries, located in Vagli, and Collemantina : Calacatta Apuano, Arabescato Apuano, Tuscan Superwhite, Bianco Altissimo, Fantastico Arni and Collemantina.

Our ongoing dedication to finding the newest, most luxurious stones, in line with the latest market trends, and consistent innovation in offering the finest types of finishing, are the two main qualities that characterize our extensive range of products, boasting more than 450 colors from all over the world.
